

Pittsburgh Chess Club Summer 2017 Chess Camps

with International Chessmaster Jerry Meyers

Location: The air-conditioned Pittsburgh Chess Club, 5604 Solway St in Squirrel Hill.

These chess camps provide a chance for your child to receive individualized attention in a small group setting from Chessmaster Jerry Meyers. These camps combine both learning and fun.

Camps are limited to a maximum of 8 students. Website shows number of current vacancies.

On the first day, I teach how to record moves and play a game against each student (simultaneously). On other days, our time is divided between having the kids play each other and reviewing their games. By going over games, we can show how various situations could have been handled more effectively. Going over games with a strong player is one of the best ways to improve. On our last day, we will play a speed chess tournament. Ribbons are awarded to the top scorers, and all participants receive a chess keychain.

Students can also ask questions about specific openings or other chess topics they are curious about.

Students games will be rated. Since we will be practicing scorekeeping, students should bring a pencil. Each student will receive a free chess scorepad to record games. Free pizza on Friday is also included.

Each camp is divided by playing level of the participants. Rating levels of the camps overlap so you can place some kids in an easier or more challenging group. Contact me if you need help placing your child. Current US Chess Federation (USCF) membership is required of all students. You can join or renew below.
